IN THE MATTER OF THE AMENDMENT OF THE LOCAL RULES OF PRACTICE FOR THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF HAWAII	ORDER AMENDING THE LOCAL RULES OF PRACTICE FOR THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF HAWAII

ORDER AMENDING THE LOCAL RULES OF PRACTICE FOR THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF HAWAII

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Local Rules of Practice for the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii are amended, effective July 1, 2004, by adding the following. These new rules enable this court to adopt administrative procedures in the future. Until such administrative procedures are adopted, these new rules do not provide for changes in the manner in which cases are handled in this district.

LR5.3. Electronic Filing

Pursuant to Rule 5(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, papers may be filed, signed, and/or verified by electronic means that are consistent with (a) the administrative procedures adopted by a general order of this court and (b) technical standards, if any, that the Judicial Conference of the United States establishes. A paper filed by electronic means in compliance with this rule constitutes a written paper for purposes of applying the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules. To the extent any Local Rule conflicts with this rule or the administrative procedures adopted pursuant to this rule, this rule and/or the administrative procedures shall govern.

LR5.4. Electronic Service.

Pursuant to Rule 5(b)(2)(D) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a party may serve pleadings and other papers, other than service of process, through the court's transmission facilities in accordance with the administrative procedures adopted by a general order of this court. Receipt of the Notice of Electronic Filing generated by the court's Electronic Case Files ("ECF") system shall constitute the equivalent of service of the pleading or other paper on a person or party who has consented in writing to electronic service and who has waived the right to personal service or service by first class mail. To the extent any Local Rule conflicts with this rule and/or the administrative procedures adopted pursuant to this rule, this rule and/or the administrative procedures shall govern.

CrimLR49.1. Electronic Filing

Pursuant to Rule 49(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Local Rule 5.3, papers may be filed, signed, and/or verified by electronic means that are consistent with (a) the administrative procedures adopted by a general order of this court and (b) technical standards, if any, that the Judicial Conference of the United States establishes. A paper filed by electronic means in compliance with this rule constitutes a written paper for purposes of applying the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Local Rules. To the extent any Local Rule conflicts with this rule or the administrative procedures adopted pursuant to this rule, this rule and/or the administrative procedures shall govern.

CrimLR49.2. Electronic Service.

Pursuant to Rule 49(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Local Rule 5.4, a party may serve pleadings and other papers, other than service of process, through the court's transmission facilities in accordance with the administrative procedures adopted by a general order of this court. Receipt of the Notice of Electronic Filing generated by the court's Electronic Case Files ("ECF") system shall constitute the equivalent of service of the pleading or other paper on a person or party who has consented in writing to electronic service and who has waived the right to personal service or service by first class mail. To the extent any Local Rule conflicts with this rule and/or the administrative procedures adopted pursuant to this rule, this rule and/or the administrative procedures shall govern.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii; June 21, 2004.
