ORDER

WHEREAS, the Court finds it is advisable to require the disclosure by the prosecutor of intent to use evidence described in FED. R. EVID. 404(b) to be in writing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, at the final pretrial conference before a Magistrate Judge for any felony trial to be held before District Judge Helen Gillmor, the prosecutor shall not be able to satisfy the 404(b) notice requirements by oral statements. The Magistrate Judge shall require the United States Attorney to file and serve, within two days of the conference, a notice in writing of intent to use 404(b) bad acts evidence. The notice shall describe the evidence with sufficient particularity to allow the defendant to identify the act. The defendant shall file and serve a written response to the 404(b) notice within two days after the filing of the notice.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawaii, MAR 07 1995

HELEN GILLMOR
United States District Judge
